Important Information for Cornell Transfer Applicants

We are pleased that you are considering applying to Cornell University. Our admissions committees review application materials thoughtfully and thoroughly. We look forward to receiving your application and getting to know you.

The Cornell transfer application consists of:

- the Common Application or the Universal College Application for transfers (includes the Academic Report (CA) or Professor Recommendation (UCA) and the College Report)
- an $80 application fee or fee waiver
- the Cornell University Questions and Writing Supplement on the My Colleges section (CA) or the Cornell Supplement (UCA), which is required of all applicants (includes important Cornell-specific information and required essays)
- official copies of college and high school transcripts
- required Mid-Term Report

It is important that you submit your transfer application and fee as soon as possible. The Cornell University Writing Supplement (CA) or Cornell Supplement (UCA) can be submitted at the same time or later, but do not delay; the sooner we have this information, the sooner we can forward your file to the appropriate committee for review.

Apply online.

We encourage you to apply and submit your fee (unless requesting a fee waiver) online. Other application forms may also be submitted online or you may choose to print and mail the completed forms. The Mid-Term Report and Final Report (which includes your high school transcript) must be printed and mailed. All mailed materials (transcripts, Mid-Term Report, etc.) must be sent to the Application Processing Center.

We encourage you to view the personal parts of the application, and in particular the Personal Statement, as opportunities to think about yourself and reflect on what is important to you. Give careful thought to the questions that are asked, but don’t try to write the answers you think we want to hear. Give us answers that tell us about you.

Your application must be submitted online by October 15 for spring 2016 transfer admission, or by March 15 for fall 2016 transfer admission.

Application Fee/Fee Waiver

Cornell’s application fee is $80, and you are required to submit it with your transfer application. Please note that Cornell cannot process your application without the application fee or fee waiver. You can apply for an application fee waiver by submitting the NACAC Fee Waiver Form or a letter from a transfer advisor or representative of a social service/community agency stating that the fee would cause financial hardship.

When submitting your application online, check the fee waiver box on the application and mail your fee waiver request to: Transfer Admissions, Cornell University, Application Processing Center, East Hill Plaza, 349 Pine Tree Road, Ithaca, NY 14850-2899.

Cornell University Supplemental Information

The required Cornell University Questions and Writing Supplement on the My Colleges tab (CA) or the Cornell Supplement (UCA) provides us with essential information about your academic interests. The admissions staff at Cornell carefully reads and evaluates your response to the academic interest essay. The information you provide helps us determine how good a match exists between your intellectual goals and the Cornell college or school to which you are applying. You may submit this information with your transfer application or separately.

Important Email Instructions

It is important that you provide us with a legible, current email address that you check frequently. Email is our primary tool for communicating with you to request missing application materials, verify information, give you special instructions, etc. Please carefully type or print your email address on the application form, being certain that characters are understood (for example, using 0 for zero and noting the difference between a lower case l, the number 1, and the letter I).

Do NOT send duplicate copies of materials through the mail or online unless you are specifically asked to do so by the admissions office.

Application Status

If you have any questions about the status of your application, see: admissions.cornell.edu/apply/transfer-applicants/check-application-status.
Admission Interviews
For applicants to the architecture program in the College of Architecture, Art, and Planning, a formal interview is required for admission. Applicants to the Department of Art in the College of Architecture, Art, and Planning are strongly encouraged (though not required) to have an interview. The School of Hotel Administration offers an interview and invites applicants to request one if they want; on-campus or off-campus.

- For architecture or fine arts applicants to the College of Architecture, Art, and Planning, use the online interview request form (aap.cornell.edu/admissions/interview.cfm) or call 607.255.4376 to schedule an interview
- School of Hotel Administration: Interviews offered for SHA applicants. Details at hotelschool.cornell.edu/admissions/ugrad

Formal interviews are not required, nor offered as part of the admissions process for any other undergraduate programs.
